Dear Jim:

I appreciated your thoughtfulness in writing me under date of July 16, enclosing a copy of Sir Edwin Herbert's comments on your address on Strategic Intelligence.

I have found this of real interest and have passed it on to others in the office so they could share it with me.

Faithfully yours,

Dear Allen:

I have represented Sir Edwin Herbert on various matters in the United States and sent him a copy of my little lecture on Strategic Intelligence. Because of his own outstanding work during World War II, I thought you would like to see a copy of the enclosed letter which I received from him today.

Sincerely,

JBD/mm
